

Upplevelsekartläggning

Four sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of four lines, positioned below each of the four face icons in the first row. These lines are intended for writing notes or descriptions related to each stage of the process.

A second set of four sets of horizontal lines, each set consisting of four lines, positioned below each of the four face icons in the second row. These lines are intended for writing notes or descriptions related to each stage of the process.